30 days ago open compendium of therapeutic choices. All i wanted was a head start for a few days but i realized with limited means i dont have the option to get the book, so i decided to the internet to see if it was still available. i got a beta copy which i took to this local college bookstore where i spoke with one of the attendants and asked him to sell it to me. I paid him and got the book. I enjoyed the book and it had all of the information i wanted to have in order to get a licence. Category:Medical books
